

General Information

*The use of our facilities is complimentary. No outside catering is permitted, with the exception of special event cakes and cookies.

There is a minimum of 35 people for buffets and 25 people for sit-down dinners. Smaller groups are welcome to reserve a complimentary room and order from the menu.

All events of 50 or more include wait staff, china table settings, glassware, linens, tableskirts and cleaning free of charge. A fee for linen will apply to smaller groups.

Our staff reserves the right to deny the consumption of alcohol to anyone due to intoxication that may lead to inappropriate behavior. There will be no shots served with the exception of the bridal dance.

A West Virginia sales tax of .07% is applied to all totals. In addition, a 15% gratuity will be added to all buffet & 22% to sit downs.

The use of confetti is not permitted. The use of confetti will result in a $200.00 clean-up fee.

A deposit is required to hold your room.

All prices and selections subject to change.

Creating Memories That Span Generations...

Spanning four generations, Generations has been owned and operated by the Duplaga family. All four generations have and continue to provide quality service to the city of Wheeling and the people of the Ohio Valley.

Following in the footsteps of our predecessors, we at Generations proudly present you with our banquet/buffet menu, designed by our staff to be flexible yet concise in bringing you the quality of service you so richly deserve.

Whether it is a family get together, a company function, a class reunion or a large wedding reception, let us cater to your needs. Our professional and courteous staff is always prepared to work with you to coordinate an event that fits your budget. We look forward to seeing you and making your event a memorable one.

If you would like to call and make an appointment or just stop in, we are always prepared for your free consultation.
